BAP Distribution Policy for Gospel Tracts and Booklets

Description:
 This literature ranges from four to thirty-one pages in length. Most pages are 3 1/2 X 8 1/4 inches. They cover a wide variety of subjects: salvation, doctrine, prophecy, issues of the day, etc.

Requests for Limited Quantities:
 Individuals are encouraged to request small quantities for personal study or to share in small groups. Less than 15 copies can be requested without making a contribution, but donations are always helpful to maintain a supply in stock.

Requests for Larger Quantities:
 Churches and individuals who order quantities for distribution are asked to contribute to the Literature Fund amounts adequate to pay for replacing the literature they are ordering. Literature production cost data sheets are available to help determine the cost of an order.

Foreign Quantity Orders:
 About half of our tracts and booklets (many thousands) are sent to church leaders in developing countries for outreach. They are not able to pay, so the literature sent to them must be provided by free-will offerings given by others. The Literature Fund is dependent entirely upon offerings from individuals and churches to maintain the production-distribution cycle.

Distribution Policy for the Bible Advocate:

Subscriptions are free to those who personally request them. Sample copies may be given or sent to prospective readers, with an invitation to become subscribers at their personal request.
 Club subscriptions of two or more copies sent to the same address may be ordered at the prevailing cost per copy. Contact the BAP office for cost information.

Please clearly designate your contributions and payments on the lines provided below. Your contributions are tax deductible.
